

Don Day Neighborhood Center

Fun and affordability in South Fontana can only be found at the Don Day Neighborhood Center. The well known hot spot for families and individuals offers a variety of learning opportunities to include dance, lyrical ribbon dance, gymnastics, Fun with Photography, Gymboree, English as a Second Language, piano, tae kwon do, and American Sign Language. The Don Day Neighborhood Center is also a host for the popular Tiny Tots Program.

The center has a spacious multipurpose room that can be rented for birthday parties or meetings. The neighboring Southridge Park complete with courts for basketball and tennis, and the children's playground make this the ideal setting for any gathering.
